

FOREST FIRE LOSS RUNS TO $20,000,000

HUNDREDS OF LIVES ARE LOST IN CONFLAGRATION

200 Fleeing for Lives From Flames Near Vancouver—Wendling Burned—
Hope for Rangers Given up

SPOKANE, Aug. 25.—Following is the forest fire situation today. It is estimated that the property losses will reach almost $20,000,000, divided as follows: At Wallace, $1,000,000; Couer d' Alene mines, $250,000; railways, $3,000,000; settlers in three states, $250,000; timber, $15,000,000.

Grand total of dead and missing 327. Forest rangers, eighty-five under Joe Halm and 100 under F. A. Fern are unheard from.

SPOKANE, Aug. 25.—Hope for the safety of eighty-five men in the forestry service is practically abandoned, according to a Wallace, Idaho, dispatch. A party headed by Joe Halm was fighting fires near the St. Joe headwaters, and no word has come from them for three days.

Wallace reports a strong wind again rising and there is danger the fire will continue to spread.

FLEEING FOR LIVES FROM FIRE NEAR VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, Aug. 25.—Two hundred residents of the village Battle-ground, fifteen miles north of Vancouver, are fleeing for their lives from a forest fire, according to an afternoon message.

Minnehaha, north of Vancouver, was saved after men had battled for it for twenty-four hours. Eleven men living at Wild Boy camp are missing and it is believed they have been killed. The fire passed Conna and the town is probably saved. Communications with Yacolt were lost today and it is feared the town may be endangered.

SMOKE FROM PACIFIC COAST FIRES WASTED TO DENVER

DENVER, Aug. 25.—A steady gale from the Pacific Northwest fire area has caused the temperature here to drop sixty degrees in twelve hours. The thermometer registered 38 degrees this morning. Smoke from the fires was carried here by the wind.

RAIN AND SNOW CHECK FIRES IN MONTANA

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 25.—The forest fire situation has greatly improved. Since last night a light rain and a snow has dampened the timber. The wind has also moderated, and it is now apparently certain that the fires will be confined to the areas already burned over.

NEW "COMMERCIAL" BANK PROJECTED FOR SANTA ANA

Local Men Will Organize Probably Next Monday Night—Location Corner Fourth and Bush St.

Santa Ana is to have a new bank and it is to be located on the southwest corner of Fourth and Bush streets.

This statement is made without authority from anyone. It is simply a statement of what appears to be a fact.

It is unquestionably a fact that Morrill & Price, the grocers occupying the store at the corner of Fourth and Bush streets, have purchased of the Horton-Spurgeon Furniture Co. the lease of the store room just vacated by the latter in the Opera House block.

One of the leading spirits in the proposed new bank said today: "If the bank is organized it will almost certainly be located in the store room now occupied by Morrill & Price, therefore those gentlemen are simply protecting themselves by getting a new location."

Among the names mentioned as stockholders in the proposed new bank are: W. F. Lutz, M. Nisson, A. J. Visel, Chas. Ross, Fred Ross, E. A. Stockslager.

These gentlemen and others have held several meetings, and many of them have talked freely of their plans; but none of them has authorized any publication, though several of them have expressed the opinion that no reason existed for longer withholding the news from the general public.

As a matter of fact not a dollar of stock has yet been actually and legally subscribed; but all of the men are so well known to each other that all are satisfied with "a gentleman's agreement." It is understood that final and irrevocable steps will be taken at a meeting next Monday night, such as the apportionment of stock holdings and an agreement as to who shall be directors and officers of the bank.

Several locations for the new bank have been considered, the southeast corner of Fourth and Main, the northeast corner of Fourth and Sycamore and the southwest corner of Fourth and Bush. The latter seems to have won.

Of course the building will be remodeled.

That the new bank will be amply capitalized and ably officered goes without saying. The amount of capital mentioned in the common talk is $100,000.

The name of the new bank, report says, is to be the "Commercial Bank," and there was a report to the effect that Walter B. Tedford, G. J. Mosbaugh and Fred Ross were to be the chief officers and active managers of the new bank; but this is probably not correct as to Mr. Tedford and Mr. Mosbaugh. The former, it is understood, will be with the Farmers & Merchants after the old Commercial Bank is closed out, and Mr. Mosbaugh's friends say they are confident he will not be connected with the new bank in any way.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS WILL HAVE NO REDRESS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The widows and orphans of ninety-four forest rangers who died in the fires of the Northwest have no means of securing reparation or pensions, unless Congress enacts special laws, according to the statement of forest service officials today.

After a forest service man is disabled, the government cuts off his pay, and there are no official means of taking cognizance of the fact that a man is killed in the service of the government.

New York County Convention
Instructs Delegates to Vote
For Roosevelt

ALBION, N. Y., Aug. 25.—The republican convention of Orleans county, in the 34th Congressional district, yesterday repudiated Vice-President Sherman and instructed its six delegates to the Republican state convention, which convenes in Saratoga on September 27, to vote for Theodore Roosevelt for temporary chairman as against Sherman.

As this was the first county convention since Roosevelt declared open war on the old guard leaders and President Taft publicly repudiated Vice-President Sherman, the old guard leaders made every effort to keep Orleans county in line for the Wadsworth-Barnes-Woodruff-Ward-Sherman faction.

Sherman Feels Bitterly

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Vice President Sherman has refused to talk on the subject of Taft's letter to Grismom, but a friend, who is intimate with him, was quoted last night as saying that Sherman felt bitterly toward President Taft and declared he was through with politics forever, that he would never again be a candidate for any public office, and that as soon as his term as Vice President ends on March 4, 1913, he would retire from politics for good.

This man added that "there was no doubt that Sherman meant just what he said, and would never consent to be drawn into a political controversy."

HORRIBLE SCENES IN MICHIGAN COLLISION

Portions of Bodies Drop in Fire
In Sight of Bystanders Who Were Helpless to Aid

DURAND, Mich., Aug. 25.—The bodies of six women, a man and a child were recovered early today from the blazing wreckage of a Chicago, Montreal & Grand Trunk express train, which was run down by passenger train No. 4, four miles east of here, last night. Several persons, some alive, were believed to be still in the wreckage at day-break, according to the rescuers. Portions of their bodies were seen dropping into the fire, but the heat was too intense for any attempt at rescue.

The injured number three, and it is believed that of twenty Pullman passengers, only four escaped. The bodies of the dead are so mangled and burned that identification is impossible.

The accident is supposed to be the result of a failure to set the danger signals when the express train engine broke down and was forced to a standstill on the main line. The engineers of both trains are thought to be fatally hurt.

COMPETITION FOR STANDARD OIL CO.

Palmer Oil Company of Frisco to Install Fleet, Pipelines and Big Refinery

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—That the Palmer Oil Company is to compete with the Standard, Associated and Union Oil companies for handling the petroleum output of California was announced yesterday.

The project, as outlined by Vice-President J. C. Kemp Van Ee, includes not only a system of pipe lines but a refinery at either Gaviota or Oilport, and a fleet of tank steamers to carry the oil up and down the coast. About $2,000,000 will be expended at once.

The preliminary survey has been taken for a pipe line system from Santa Maria to tidewater, and contracts for two modern oil tank steamers have been drawn up.

Judge N. P. Conrey For Appellate Court Justice

The defeat of Judge Oster of San Bernardino county for the Republican nomination for appellate court judge is, no doubt, responsible for the independent candidacy of Judge N. P. Conrey of Los Angeles. While Judge Oster was not endorsed by the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League and its ally, the Good Government organization of Los Angeles, for these organizations, it is said, are backing Judge Conrey in his independent fight.

Judge Conrey has begun the circulation of his petitions for nomination to the District Court of Appeals for the Second district to succeed the late Justice Taggart. These petitions are circulated under Section 1188 of the political code of California, which will place the nomination on a non-partisan basis.

In his candidacy Judge Conrey doubtless will receive the unqualified endorsement of the Good Government organization of Los Angeles county, which strongly advocates the establishment of the judiciary in all departments on a non-partisan basis. That he will be supported by the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League also is a foregone conclusion, for he is regarded by the progressive element in both parties in Los Angeles county as being eminently qualified for the post for which he has been so strongly urged to become a candidate.

While on the Superior Bench his record has been beyond reproach in every particular. His opinions have established his reputation for judgment and thorough knowledge of the law, and his decisions, almost without exception, have been sustained by the higher courts of the state. He is now serving his third term as Judge of the Superior Court, which is ample evidence of the confidence reposed in him by the voters of the county in which he resides.

Judge Conrey was born in Indiana fifty years ago. He was graduated from De Pauw University in 1881 and from the law department of the University of Michigan in 1883. He has been a resident of Los Angeles county since 1884. In 1886 he was chosen City Attorney of Pasadena, served on the Los Angeles Board of Education in 1897 and 1898 and was a member of the assembly in the California Legislature of 1899 and the special session of 1900, and there voted for United States Senator Bard in the contest that resulted in the defeat of Daniel M. Burns. He has occupied the Superior Bench in Los Angeles county since 1900.

Metal Workers Will Close Every Shipyard, Machine Shop
and Foundry in California

SEATTLE, Aug. 25.—According to private advices received by the leaders of the machinists' strike on the Sound, the final touch in the fight between labor and capital will come on September 1, with a strike of thousands of the metal trades workers in San Francisco. The men are out in every city from Los Angeles to Vancouver, except San Francisco. Late reports indicate that the metal trades associations in San Francisco have refused the demands of the workers there, and unless a settlement is reached before September 1, every shipyard, machine shop and foundry in California will close.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—At a breakfast at the Ellicott Club, Col. Roosevelt said:

"I feel it just a little more my duty to hunt crooks out of public life because they happen to be in my own party." Roosevelt continued: "Just as we must keep unpolluted the waters of the great lakes, we must likewise act in moral, public and domestic life. We must see that things are unpolluted at their source. I believe in pure government and in this belief I do not recognize party distinction. Men must keep their eyes fixed in distrust, above all things, on the men who inveigh against honesty of one another. Distrust the demagogue who does not see crookedness in the grafting of labor, and distrust him who sees crookedness in the poor alone and overlooks the financial corporation head."

He left for his western trip immediately after breakfast.

The Colonel grinned, waving his fists, indicating acquiescence to the beligerent invitation.

"UNWRITTEN LAW" PLEA SAVES GIRL

Mamie McLaughlin Freed—
Another Killing Follows—
Epidemic Expected

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 25.—Following the acquittal of Mamie McLaughlin on the plea of the "unwritten law," after killing Hugh Smith, whom she claimed had betrayed her, the police are facing an epidemic of man-killing by disappointed girls. Katherine French last night killed Frank Mischler. The girl, who is expecting to become a mother soon, is confident the jury will free her on the unwritten law plea. The police say they have information that numerous young men have received letters from wronged girls, threatening punishment by death, and many of the men have hired body guards.

WALNUT ASSOCIATION ACCEPTS COMPROMISE IN LITIGATION

The Board of Directors of the Richland Walnut Association met at the office of the secretary in the Ehlen & Grote block Tuesday evening to take up several matters of importance.

The board approved a compromise with Dr. R. A. Adams in the association's suit which has been pending in the Superior Court. The compromise stipulated that the Walnut Association was to receive $100 and that the defendant renew his membership in the association, both plaintiff and defendant to settle their respective attorney fees, etc.

The crop report of the local men indicated a shortage of 25 per cent in this year's crop as compared to that of the past season, as reported by the members.

The secretary was ordered to purchase 8500 sacks for the present year's crop and work was ordered to begin within the next week to get the local house into shape to handle the crop.—Orange News.

FRUIT MEN PLAN FOR BIG MEETING, SEPT. 13 AND 14

There will be a state convention of citrus fruit growers, held under the auspices of the State Commission of Horticulture, on the 13th and 14th of September at Pomona. A hall has been provided with a seating capacity of over 500, and it is expected that every seat in that hall will be occupied. This meeting has been called at one of the most central of the citrus fruit districts of the state, and arrangements will no doubt be made to secure greatly reduced railroad rates.

Broadly speaking, the discussions at this conference will be confined to the physical condition of our citrus groves, eliminating as far as possible the effects of insect pests and considering questions relating to plant physiology, pathology and botany, and their co-relatives of plant propagation, varieties, soil physics, active diseases and decadence of citrus trees causes.

In many of our citrus groves deterioration has been expressing itself in barrenness in lack of health and vigor and in poor quality of fruit. The problems involved in these effects are of great obscurity; they are found in every locality in the state; if they are not met with wisdom and understanding the citrus fruit business cannot remain prosperous or our land values be maintained. It will be the business of the coming conference to get together the sum of the views and experiences of trained observers, scientific investigators and practical growers, and to unite in business like council the factors able to solve these obscure problems, or at least able to provide some plan for their solution. To do this the order of business and the discussion will be directed toward results, and the elimination attempted of all matters that may be narrow or valueless in their application or whose consideration would lead to no definite results.

GOLD LEAF.

The Many Stages In the Process of Its Manufacture.

Gold leaf, of which such large quantities are used by picture frame makers as well as by other trades, is made as follows:

An alloy of the desired color having been formed, the gold is melted in a crucible at a temperature well above the fusion point. It is then cased into an ingot and flattened by rolling between a pair of powerful steel rollers into a ribbon one and a half inches wide and ten feet in length to the ounce.

After being flattened it is annealed and cut in pieces of about six and a half grains each and placed between the leaves of a "cutch," which is about half an inch thick and three and a half inches square, containing about 180 leaves of tough paper manufactured for the purpose. This is beaten on for about twenty minutes with a seventeen pound hammer, by which the gold is spread to the size of the cutch. Each leaf is then taken out and cut in four pieces.

These are put between the leaves of a "shoder" four and a half inches square and three-quarters of an inch thick, containing about 720 skins which have been worn out in the "mold" or finishing process, described later. The shoder requires about two hours' beating with a nine pound hammer. Each leaf is again cut in four pieces and placed between the leaves of a mold composed of about 950 of the finest gold beaters' skins five inches square and three-quarters of an inch thick, the contents of one shoder filling three molds.

The material has now reached the last and most difficult stage of the process. During the first hour the hammer is allowed to fall principally on the center of the mold. This causes gaping cracks upon the edges of the leaves, the sides of which rapidly coalesce without leaving any trace of the union after being beaten upon. At the second hour, when the gold is about the one hundred and fifty thousandth part of an inch in thickness, it for the first time permits the transmission of light. If the gold is pure or but slightly alloyed green rays pass through; when highly alloyed with silver violet rays appear.

As a rule about four hours' beating with a seven pound hammer is required. A single ounce of gold will at this stage trim to about 1,200 leaves three and one-quarter inches square. The finished leaves are taken out of the mold and the rough edges trimmed off by slips of rattan fixed in parallel grooves of an instrument called a wagon, the leaf being laid upon a leather cushion for that purpose.

The leaves are placed in "books" capable of holding twenty-five leaves each, which have been rubbed over with red ochre to prevent the gold from clinging to the paper. The fine gold beaters' skin is the coat of the caecum or blind gut of the ox specially prepared.—Canadian Painter and Decorator.

A Ruskin Thought.

To be content in utter darkness and ignorance is indeed unmanly, and therefore we think that to love and find knowledge must be always right. Yet wherever pride has any share in the work even knowledge and light may be ill pursued. Knowledge is good, and light is good, yet man perished in seeking knowledge, and the moths perish in seeking light, and if we who are crushed before the moth will not accept such mystery as is needful to us we shall perish in like manner. None but the proud will mourn over this, for we may always know more, if we choose, by working on, but the pleasure is, I think, to humble people, in knowing that the journey is endless, the treasure inexhaustible.—Ruskin.

Age of Criminal Responsibility.

In England the law looks upon every one over the age of seven as a responsible being, and every child beyond that age can be prosecuted as a criminal. The same age is accepted in Russia and Portugal. In France and Belgium the age is eight, in Italy and Spain it is nine. Norway, Greece, Austria, Denmark and Holland decline to prosecute a child under ten, and this is the rule also in some of the Swiss cantons. In Germany the limit of responsibility is fixed at twelve.

Timely Advice.

It was during a performance of "Faust" in a provincial town. After the duel Martha, who rushed in at the head of the crowd, raised Valentin's head and held him in her arms during the first part of the scene and exclaimed in evident alarm, "Oh, what shall I do?"

For a moment there was a death-like stillness in the house, when a voice from the gallery suddenly called out, "Unbutton his waist."

OIL MEN DECIDED IMPORTANT MATTER

Have Fixed Amount on Stored
Barrels of Oil on Which Loans Can Be Had

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—The vital question to Southern California oil industries as to a means of turning into revenue the millions of barrels of stored oil, was settled yesterday, to a great extent, by the announcement of the Union Oil Company and the Independent Producers' Agency, fixing 35 cents a barrel as the minimum value on stored oil on which loans may be obtained, and the guarantee of certificates on that basis.

The announcement of yesterday has put the oil situation into the brightest of lights, and oil men throughout the southwest never have been so optimistic as now.

The step is the result of months of careful and able planning by the big independent oil men. The mammoth fields of California have been producing oil at a rate far in excess of anything ever anticipated. This oil crept ahead of the market. It was barreled and stored, and thus became a temporary dead loss to the owners, who had to wait for the market to catch up, in order to reap the reward from their produce. The question was how to make the oil in storage pay, despite the fact that the market was not up to the production, and that question was answered yesterday.

It was decided that the minimum value of oil per barrel in storage would be 35 cents, this value to apply only in fixing the value of certificates to be issued. The guarantee of the value of the certificates was established. There were made of unquestioned value relative to securing loans, the decision placing them higher on the list of collateral than even real estate.

Present plans include the issuance of certificates, on September 15, for 3,000,000 barrels of oil, a total of $1,050,000. This amount is about one-third of the oil now in storage by the Independent Producers' Agency. Under the arrangement of yesterday each certificate will be for 3000 barrels, at a minimum value of $1050. There will be fifteen coupons to each certificate, each for one-fifteenth of the total, and one being payable each month. Interest is fixed at 8 per cent a year.

The issuance of the certificates does not mean the sale of the oil, but merely a loan upon the oil, giving the holders ready money, with an absolute guarantee of payment. It will double the ready money among the oil dealers here, and in the fields. When the oil is sold the owners will receive the market price, the minimum thirty-five per cent rating being used merely in fixing the rate on the certificates, and having nothing to do with the market price.

The members of the agency will in this way be able to obtain ready money at any time on the certificates, their papers being double guaranteed by the Independent Producers' Agency and the Union Oil Company.

Have You Ever Said: "I don't see how all the Magazines live?"—

Undoubtedly you have. Probably you have often stood before some news stand and wondered what magazines to buy. There are a lot of magazines. Most of them are mighty good and most of them live because they are good.

But there's one magazine that not only lives but GROWS. There are fifteen or more good reasons for this in every issue. These reasons are its "unbeatable" features—the special articles obtained at enormous cost—the best fiction in the world—and its powerful, sincere editorial purpose.

The September number for example: Every feature is a big one. It is actually stuffed with big, vital news—information that you ought to have, articles that explain things, stories that every member of your family will read with intense delight. Here are some of the extra good things:

Splendid Fiction. Stories—fine ones—by Arthur Stringer, Alice Brown, Mary Heaton Vorse, George Fitch and John Fleming Wilson.

"The Tooth Tinkers"—An account by Roy L. McCardell of "Painless Parkers" and their swindles.

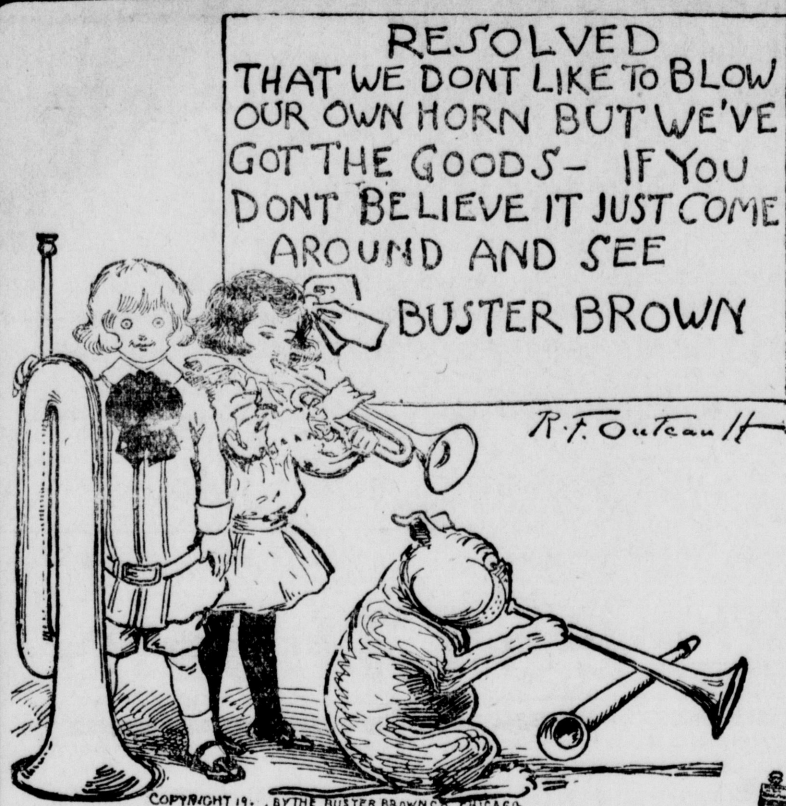

"The Czar of Footwear"—Startling facts—all brand new—about the Shoe Machinery Trust, by Judson C. Welliver.

"In Reno Riotous"—A great story of the Johnson-Jeffries fight, by Harris Merton Lyon, filled with personality, crowded with local color, and illustrated just right.

The magazine that not only lives but grows is the magazine that is giving to the country "Peary's Own Story," a $50,000 feature; it is the magazine that is publishing the first English translation in America of M. Rostand's world famous drama "Chantecler." It is "the Best Magazine in America" and it is called

CANCER CURE IS ANNOUNCED

Dr. Gilman of Manila Hospital
Discovers Vaccine That Cures

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Dr. P. K. Kilman, professor of surgery in the Philippine medical school, surgeon-in-chief of the Philippine general hospital at Manila, announces the discovery of a cure, through the use of vaccine, for cancer, that malady that has baffled science for half a century.

Within a month the secret will be given, in all its details, to the medical world—a gift to all mankind. The cure in itself is so simple, according to Dr. Gilman, that the wonder is it has not been discovered before.

It is this—the treatment of the cancer by vaccine made from the tumor itself. Just a tiny bit of this vaccine, discovered and prepared by Dr. Gilman, within two months has been proved to cure the most malignant cases.

For three years Dr. Gilman has labored incessantly in the Manila hospital laboratories working out the cure. And at last he has succeeded.

Dr. Gilman has been in communication with Dr. Simon Flexner, director of Rockefeller Institute, New York City, a million-dollar foundation established especially for the study and cure of cancer. Dr. Flexner, himself, one of the greatest surgeons in this country, is deeply interested in the discovery and he has written to Dr. Gilman for details. The British government, learning of the discovery, has asked Dr. Gilman to demonstrate his discovery at the Royal Cancer Institute at Havana for the benefit of the British government and the British Medical Society.

Back from a trip about the country, during which time he signed up 3200 acres of sugar beets to be grown the coming season for the Anaheim Sugar Company, H. S. Hadsall found time for an interview with a representative of the Anaheim Gazette. Mr. Hadsall has a herculean task before him in arranging details for this great enterprise, but he seems able to keep abreast of his work and yesterday said everything was moving along in apple pie order. He said:

"I have received a map from the Southern Pacific railroad on its route from Brookhurst to the factory, and right of way is being secured. Santa Fe surveyors went over the ground yesterday with Mr. Egge, and surveys will be run immediately. Tracks of both roads will be constructed to the yards at the earliest possible moment, and the Pacific Electric will undoubtedly construct its line to the grounds,

A BIG ORANGE CROP ON TREES

The Fullerton Tribune man in a talk with Mr. Wilkinson of the Benchley Fruit Company heard a report on the outlook of the orange crop in Orange county that was very encouraging. Mr. Wilkinson is in a position to give authoritative information on this subject, being constantly in touch with the growers of this district, supplemented by personal observation on his tours of investigation.

He says the present season's shipments were nearly 50 per cent under the normal crop, but that unless unforeseen conditions arise next season's crop will be 50 per cent above normal. The young fruit on the trees, both navels and valencias, is more than ordinarily plentiful and well advanced, indicating an early maturing. The general average in size is far above ordinary at this time of year and the set exceptionally good. Indications for early maturing next year are fine.

These reports are not for individual groves, but all over the district, which gives a high average.

THE S. P. WRECK

Now that the S. P. machine has been smashed, so far as the Republican party is concerned, things are being openly said about it by its former friends that heretofore they would hardly have whispered. It is now acknowledged that once it had an existence and was a fearful power in the land, and yet who was there except Johnson and his supporters who dared say this for publication before August 16th? But now it has become a subject of common discussion even in the anti-Johnson papers. They say in San Francisco that it has lost its prestige, and that men who heretofore dared not oppose it and were told to vote for Anderson went to the polls and voted for Curry, or Johnson, as best suited them.

Hear this: "The Oakland shops were told to support Anderson, and it is a fact that in the precincts where the Southern Pacific workers live Johnson carried everything in sight." But there were "oodles of coin," we are told, and old heeled who had been on their uppers for years, were bulging with fat rolls of greenbacks. It was all to no purpose, however, with the direct primary. A new feeling has come over the people. They have awakened to political self-consciousness and the first thing they propose to do is to take back their government, and the next thing will be to administer it in the interests of the whole people.

SOMETHING IN A NAME

Congressman Joe Knowland of Alameda county tells the best story of how the intelligent voter casts his ballot in the direct primary, that expresses the will of the people without regard to the bosses. The tale ran as follows:

A negro entered one of the booths in the city of Alameda and said he could not read or write. So two election officers went behind the screen to read his ticket for him, as the law says must be done.

"Who do you want to vote for for governor?" they asked of the colored man and brother.

"I dunno," he said.

"Well, here are the names—Anderson, Curry, Ellery, Johnson—"

"Say, boss!" interrupted the representative of the physically superior race, "Done yo' say Mr. Johnsoning? Well, Mr. Johnsoning am good enough for me!"

Strong Assurance of a Progressive Legislature

(Fresno Republican)

It is too early to give out final figures on the line-up of the new legislature, but the following very conservative estimate, based on a preliminary checking up of the returns so far available, may be of general interest.

Of the hold-over Senators eleven may be counted definitely on the side of reform. Of the new Senators to be elected, there are eleven districts in which Republicans have been nominated whose election is certain and who can be trusted unconditionally to vote right when elected. Counting on the other side all whose election or affiliations may be doubtful and all of whom there happens to be no information available, this gives a clear majority of two votes, all Republican, absolutely certain. Of course the actual majority will be much larger, since at least a part of the doubtful or unknown ones will turn out to be favorable, and probably half the remainder will come over on the band wagon. Even without these, the Republican caucus would be considerably greater, and on legislative matters outside the caucus, reform Democrats would swell the total. So, however, the final figures may change details, it is perfectly certain that the reform Republicans will have a clear majority of the next session, even without a non-partisan coalition, which can usually not be had until after the organization is effected.

The figures on the Assembly are just twice these but a little more definite. There are forty-four Republicans known to be the right sort, who are certain of election. There are seventeen known to be wrong, some of whom may be defeated. There are three Democrats unopposed, all good men. And there are fourteen ranked "doubtful," either because they may be defeated, because they may not stand right if elected, or because the writer happens to have no information about them. From the other three districts there are no returns or estimates.

The value of these figures is that they are extremely conservative, claiming only what is certain, and that they show a same majority in each house, of reform Republicans alone. There is no reason why decent Republicans and decent Democrats should not combine in a state legislature, and in fact, they usually do, after they have had a chance to try each other out. But the most important things in determining the complexion of a legislature are done at the very beginning, before there is time to form such a coalition. It is therefore important to start out with a clear Republican majority of the right sort of Republicans. Also, it is absolutely certain that if the reformers have so much as one majority, of absolutely safe votes, in each house, that majority will easily take in half the others. When the racetrack bill was before the last legislature, its passage was extremely doubtful until a poll of the senate showed a safe majority of one vote for it. Then there was a scramble to tumble aboard, and on the final vote there were only half a dozen, all from San Francisco and Oakland, who voted against the bill.

"Unto him that hath shall be given" is the law of legislative possession. And the reform side "hath."

An Analysis of the Apricot Situation

And the Work of the Orange County Dried Fruit Association

(By J. G. Berneike, M. D., Director)

This is an attempt to present to the apricot growers of the county an analysis of the apricot situation, as I see it; and of the share which our association has had in influencing the market.

One reads and hears yet occasionally that the apricot crop of this state is large this year. The crop report obtained directly from apricot growers by our association contradicts and disproves every such statement. The least that may be said is that there is a decided shortage in the apricot crop this year. We have more and better information concerning the southern counties, than from the central and northern. We know absolutely that the shortage in the southern counties is very large. We know that in some northern counties there were some localities showing a heavy crop. Between it all there is less than an average crop.

We therefore take exception to the statement quoted in the Register from the Los Angeles Express, viz. "That California's output of dried fruits, with the exception of prunes will be large, is the opinion of Los Angeles fruit jobbers." And this: "Although the apricot crop is an average one in size, * * *

We know that the prune crop is very short, in some localities a failure. The peach crop, however, is larger than the eight year average, according to the August Crop Reporter, published by the U. S. government.

We have then a short apricot crop, a very short prune crop, and a good peach crop. Taking these three fruits we still have a short output of dried fruit in California. In some localities no fruit was dried this year because the call for green fruit by the market and by canneries consumed it all, and left no surplus for drying. Now take the eastern states. The damage to the fruit crop by frost was so extensive and severe, as to deprive several large and populous states of fruit altogether, and cut short a good many others. This made a call for green fruit from other states, and this in turn cut short the supply for drying. Summing up: The output of dried fruit this year in the United States will be short.

What will be likely to be the demand? The demand will be larger than in previous years because many people who have had their own green fruit, viz: Winter apples, pears, etc., and their own dried fruit to fall back on in other years are this year obliged to buy them.

Here then is the situation in a nutshell. There is a smaller supply against a larger than usual demand.

Now as to the price for dried fruit, especially apricots. In the northern counties of California the fruit comes earlier and is sold earlier than here. Eastern buyers wrote early that they would pay 6 1/2 and 7 cents per pound. The apricot growers in northern California received from 6 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents, the bulk of the crop probably went at about 7 1/2 cents, since very few growers get the top price.

Why then have the growers in Orange county and in Ventura county obtained 10 cents per pound? Here is where the work of the Orange County Dried Fruit Association comes in. We assert that the growers here would not have received any more than the growers in the north, but for the work of the association. If this is not so, then let some one give us a reasonable explanation. Let us prove our point. The association in the first place obtained an apricot report. It published this report throughout the county and the state. This came too late to help northern growers. But it enlightened southern growers and was received with confidence. Based on this report and with knowledge of fruit crop and general market conditions the association set a minimum price of 10 cents. This was taken up by our growers and in Ventura county, and more or less throughout the state, wherever growers had not yet sold. Ventura formed an organization following closely our example. Every grower in Orange county could have had 12 cents per pound if it had been possible to have brought them all together on that basis. The writer favored this price, but found such timidity among the growers, which would have made it impossible to bring them into the association, and therefore proposed 10 cents as the basis. Even then some few growers did not think the price would reach 10 cents. But it has already passed this price and will reach 12 cents and will probably touch 15 cents. Very few naturally will be willing to risk holding for 15 cents.

That the apricot growers of this county generally appreciate the work of the association is shown by the rapidity in growth of membership.

Money for Voting for Senator Lorimer

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Representative Link, an important prosecution witness in the trial of Lee O'Neill Browne charged with legislative bribery in connection with the election of Senator Lorimer, was questioned today by Judge Kersten. He testified that he met Browne in the Springfield state house on the day Lorimer was elected. Browne asked him, he said, if he would vote for Lorimer and Link said "Yes." He said Browne later "made him a present of one thousand dollars."

Representative Beckemeyer, also a witness, testified that he received money for voting for Lorimer.

Gayety at Laguna

Laguna Beach, one of the beauty spots of this county, is extremely gay this month, many sojourning there from Santa Ana, Riverside and other interior cities. One of the pleasant events of this week was a musicale given yesterday afternoon at the Laguna Hotel in celebration of the birthday of James Willis Rice, who, with his wife, is visiting at the J. S. Rice cottage. A large number of guests were present to listen to the interesting numbers given. James Willis Rice delighted everybody with a number of his beautiful violin melodies, while Mrs. James S. Rice sang charmingly. Another singer was Mrs. Wood of San Bernardino, who was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Butler. The success of the musicale was enhanced by the jolly selections given by James S. Rice, who always captures his audiences with his drolleries.

On Friday evening Miss Edwards will give a card party to a number of guests, and other special events will doubtless follow in pleasing succession, as the season will soon be over.

Entertained G. A. R. Veterans

The entertainment presented by Santa Ana post and corps last night before the Veterans' Encampment at Huntington Beach was said to have been the best given at any similar gathering for fourteen years past. Each number was encoored, the program having an interesting spice and variety. After singing "The Star Spangled Banner" at the close of the program, the immense audience gave three rousing cheers for Santa Ana and Sedgwick post and corps. A large crowd was present from Santa Ana, the cars being packed on the return trip from the beach.

TALBERT WILL HOLD REVIVAL MEETING

Rev. W. H. (Wild Bill) Evans, D. D. of Dallas, Texas, will commence a tent meeting at Talbert in conjunction with the pastor, Rev. L. D. Barr, the first Sunday in September, continuing all through September if interest justifies. Rev. Evans is an able, eloquent and forceful preacher. Having given over twenty five years to pastoral work, he is well calculated to speak. Remember the date and watch out for additional mention of the movements of this man of God who is a veritable Elijah.

Of Rev. Evans a Colusa (Calif.) paper says:

"A meeting has been running in the Methodist church in Princeton, conducted by Rev. W. H. Evans (Wild Bill) of Dallas, Texas. There has been an unflagging interest shown by the faithful, from the good hour when they began. There has been a shaking up of dry bones and feeling after the things that make life worth living. Princeton has never had such a meeting and never will unless the same man can be secured again. Tongue or pen cannot describe the man."

ANAHEIM CANNERY SOLD TO TAYLOR

E. A. Taylor yesterday purchased the interest of Mrs. Eva H. Boyd in the Orange County Preserving Company and will continue the business upon an enlarged scale. He will be ready for this season's operations in a few days and is preparing for a record run. He will handle tomatoes, and is also in the market for peaches and apricots.

Tomato growers are requested to call for boxes at their earliest opportunity. Mr. Taylor will be pleased to see all growers, and next season will expand the cannery's capacity in many directions.—Anaheim Gazette.

SCHOOL TAX RATE 20 CENTS ON $100

Orange county's tax rate for school purposes will be 20 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation, according to a statement issued by Statistician Wood of the State Department of Public Instruction.

The tax rate will be made in September, and school superintendents in the various counties are asking for this table in order to give it to the boards of supervisors to be used in fixing the rate for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911.

REDONDO HAVING FINE RUN OF MACKEREL

REDONDO, Aug. 25.—Excitement over the heavy run of mackerel has now reached the point where scores of fishermen line the wharves as early as 3 o'clock in the morning to make certain of a place from which to fish at daylight when the mackerel come in to feed. At daylight yesterday morning there were no fewer than 300 fishermen on the various wharves waiting for the run. Many fine hauls were made, and it is estimated that summer visitors here have salted down nearly a ton of the toothsome "corn-feds."

On wharf No. 3, seventeen yellow-tails were landed yesterday, the largest one weighing 33½ pounds.

THE "BELL" PLANNING FOR THEATRICAL SHOWS

If the Bell Theatre people carry out their plans for the remodeling of the old Blue Front livery barn, as now seems highly probable, they expect to intersperse their moving picture show performances with vaudeville shows. Their plans contemplate a stage of sufficient size and suitable arrangements and illumination for general theatrical performances, and they are negotiating with the Los Angeles stock company theatres and the Orpheum for two or three performances per week here.

NOTICE RECEIVED OF OPEN ENTRY LANDS

County Clerk Williams has received notice from the Department of the Interior that the U. S. land office at Los Angeles will be prepared to receive applications for entry on and after Thursday, Nov. 3, 1910, for the entry lands in the following townships:

Township 10 north, range 5 east; township 8 north, range 17 west; township 3 south, range 2 west; township 3 south, range 7 west; township 6 south, range 6 west. Any application sworn to or filed prior to Nov. 3, 1910, will not be considered.

TO PROBE WINE INDUSTRY

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—One of the most important steps in the history of the great wine industry in Southern California was announced yesterday when Collector of Internal Revenue Claude Parker, for this district, received a telegram stating that United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue Royal E. Cabell will arrive in Los Angeles August 30 for an exhaustive investigation of the wine territory here.

ARTIFICIAL STONE IS GROWING IN POPULARITY IN CALIFORNIA

Local Manufacturers and Contractors
Doing a Splendid Piece of Work
On the New Elks' Club House

Although the use of so-called artificial stone as a building material has increased very rapidly of late, it is only now that a strong prejudice against it is being removed.

That prejudice was chiefly due to two causes: One the very natural aversion of some people to anything artificial or "make-believe" in its nature; the other the fact that so much poor work was turned out. People had fears as to the substantiability of the poor work, and its appearance was anything but pleasing.

The difference between poor work and good work in artificial stone—or cement blocks, as it should be called—is as great as the difference between a Landseer painting and a chromo on a calendar. This difference can be seen at a glance by those who have fumed and fretted over some of the plastered daubs that are so plentiful if they will inspect the work now being done by the Santa Ana Artificial Stone Co. on the new Elks building. The universal verdict is that it is simply grand. It is an exact imitation of rough hewn and dressed gray granite so interspersed as to produce a splendid architectural effect.

It is the verdict of many competent judges who have seen the very best work of this kind in Los Angeles and Pasadena that this job beats them all.

The prejudice against cement blocks on account of their being an imitation is rapidly passing away before the invincible argument of their beauty, durability and comparatively low cost. It would be a misnomer to use the word cheap in comparing the cost of this elegant building material with that of stone, for there is nothing cheap about it but the price. Besides being beautiful and durable, it is superior to stone for this climate because it can be used in hollow blocks and thus contribute to perfect ventilation, securing warmth and dryness in winter and coolness in summer.

Fame's Pathway

Charles Stramland Wake, connected with the Field Museum of Natural History, died in Chicago recently. Mr. Wake, who was a member of many scientific societies, was known as an authority on anthropology. He was the author of numerous works on the subject. Mr. Wake was born in England in 1835.

Stowe Phelps, the New York cotton leader, has been airing his views on the high cost of living, and declares that the high price of labor is the cause, dwelling upon the fact that bricklayers now get $10 a day.

Dharmananda Kosambi, one of the most learned men in all India, has arrived in this country to become an instructor of professors at Harvard and incidentally show them how much they don't know about things they think they know.

Bigamy is as foolish as it is criminal.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, rapid liver with indigestion, and dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Mod. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Emory Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from volumes of all the above medical authorities and many others endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with Golden Medical Discovery if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

CARNIVAL PLANS AND PREP- ARATIONS ARE PROGRESSING

New Additions to the Queen's Court—Poultry Exhibit to be Great—General Contributions Solicited

At a meeting of the Carnival executive committee last night reports, plans and proceedings all indicated progress.

Holbrook of Los Angeles, who so successfully handled the designing of the floats last year, has been engaged again for this year, and the plans are more elaborate than ever. He will begin work next week.

The poultry exhibit is going to be a fine one. An appropriation of $300 has been made for prizes and new exhibit coops, and S. J. Jackman will be in full charge.

Railroad Rates

Low rates have been secured from all the railroads for the round trip as follows: Los Angeles 75c, Long Beach 85c, Pasadena $1, and 1-13 fare for the round trip from all other points.

Money Needed

O. M. Robbins is chairman of the finance committee, and he needs money. Of course personal solicitation can only be extended to business and professional men and large individual contributions; but everybody ought to help some. Large or small contributions will be thankfully received by Mr. Robbins or at the Register office. Send or leave your money to this office or to Mr. Robbins.

Los Angeles Wholesalers Help
For the first time, the finance committee of the Carnival of Products has gone out of the county to solicit funds.

A committee consisting of N. A. Ulin, E. S. Gilbert, B. Utley, G. E. Shriver, T. D. Knight and J. E. Liebig went to Los Angeles Tuesday and asked the wholesale merchants to help out. They responded liberally as follows:

Cooper, Coate & Casey, drygoods, $25.

Morton Bros. & Morris, gent's furnishings, $15.

Cline-Norton Co., gent's furnishings, $15.

Brownstein, Newmark & Lewis, gent's furnishings, $25.

Cohen, Goldwater & Co., gent's furnishings, $15.

Wm. Hoegee & Co., sporting goods, $25.

E. P. Bosbyshell & Co. implements, $5.

Cunningham, Curtis & Welch, stationery, $12.50.

The Lazarus Stationery Co., $12.50.

Stewart-Dawes Shoe Co., $15.

McClellan Manufacturing Co., pictures, $10.

D. N. and E. Walter Co., carpets, $10.

Bailey-Schmitz Co., carpets, $10.

Haywood Bros. & Wakefield Co., furniture, $10.

Los Angeles Notion Co., $10.

W. P. Fuller & Co., paints and glass, $10.

For Queen's Court

The latest addition to the queen's court is Miss Marie Bushard of Huntington Beach.

The Buena Park Chamber of Commerce and La Habra Valley Farmers' Club also have selected their representatives for the queen's court, Miss Agnes Harding being chosen by the former and Miss Ella Proud by the latter.

Imitation Flowing Well
An interesting feature of the carnival is being planned by Water Superintendent Reid. He has been experimenting with an imitation flowing well, and so satisfactorily has he succeeded that he will be able to put in place an imitation that will certainly rival the real thing.

The well will be established on Bush street between Third and Fourth and will be maintained in a flush tank and the water will be forced through a four-inch stand pipe and will flow some eight or ten feet over the top. An old stand pipe will be used to give the appearance of verity to the presentment and around this will be arranged moss and greenery to add to the appearance of an institution established for keeps.

The well will be arranged and kept in place during the carnival week.

ANOTHER CHURCH FOR FULLERTON

Work was begun this week on the new Christian church, corner of Spadro road and Wilshire avenue, Fullerton. This edifice will be one of the best in the city, costing about $15,000 when completed. It is to be a one-story structure, 74x115 feet, with basement for furnace and storage room.

The Fullerton Tribune gives this description of the new edifice:

It will be built bungalow style with 6-foot foundation, shingled to eaves, with plastered gables and blue stone over. Inside it will be divided as follows: Main auditorium, 40x56 feet; Sunday school room, 24x56, and two primary rooms each 46x20. These can all be thrown into the main auditorium by use of sliding and rolling doors. It will also contain two class rooms, parlor and rest room, pastor's study, beginners' room, kitchen, dressing rooms, toilet and large vestibule. On one side of the pulpit will be the baptistry and on the other side the choir platform, seating about 24 persons. Pulpit and choir platforms will be raised with elevated seats.

Norman F. Marsh of Los Angeles is the architect, and Dawson & Daniels of Pasadena are the contractors. Their contract reads for completion Jan. 1, 1911, but they promise to rush operations and hope to have it completed two weeks earlier.

The membership of the church is at present 200. Of this number 70 have been added since January 1, when Mr. Glover took hold of the work. The congregation raised $3500 by contribution for the purpose of building, and C. C. Chapman gave an equal amount, making the total $7000 now subscribed.

Mr. Glover came here from Orange, where he served four years and left a membership of 300 and a church entirely out of debt.

NEW WAREHOUSE PLACENTIA DISTRICT

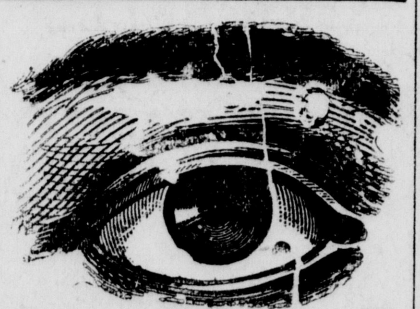

Work is well under way on a new warehouse at Placentia which will compare favorably with any in the county. Its capacity will be in the neighborhood of 500 cars a season and it will be handsomely built with concrete piers and basement. All late improvements and modern equipment will be installed.

The company erecting and owning the property consists of A. S. Bradford, A. T. Pendleton, Geo. B. Key, J. W. Newell and Wm. Crowther, but the operation of the warehouse and shipping will be conducted by the Benchley Fruit Company, which with its facilities and organization can do so with less expense and greater success than private individuals without experience in that line.

IN DESPERATE DASH OVER MOUNTAIN AND PLAIN

WHITMAN, IN REO 4, SETS LOWEST OF ALL TRANS-
CONTINENTAL RECORDS

With a new transcontinental record to shoot at in years to come, it is figured by automobile dealers that there will be more cross-country travel in an effort to lower the record set up by L. L. Whitman in a four-cylinder Reo.

From New York to San Francisco in 10 days 15 hours and 12 minutes is a mark that is not an easy thing to set, nor will it be an easy one to break, but that attempts will be made to lower it is assured, for already several of the larger eastern factories have turned their attention to the long ocean to ocean grind.

The former record of 362 hours and 12 minutes for the run from ocean to ocean was clipped to 255 hours and 12 minutes by Whitman, whose run is something that will go down in the history of motoring affairs as a phenomenon which only much shooting and favorable luck and weather can equal.

To knock off 107 hours of the transcontinental record is something that probably no other driver in the world could do unless there was much practice and considerable "holier" before hand about the performance to be expected.

Whitman quietly went about his business and tore into the record for such a gain that all the more credit is being given him.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The dull, monotonous tone of the local markets continued all day yesterday, as it has throughout the week. There were practically no changes of any character either in staples or in the fresh products of the orchards and fields. Reports from the big vineyards state that the making of this season's wine is going on in full swing. Also from Fresno comes the word that raisins are being dried and that the first drying of the year will be ready for the markets in a very few weeks. The old crop of raisins is moving fast, and with this out of the way there will be a wide field for new raisins. Even on old raisins the price has advanced fractionally. Other dried fruits are holding very firm at the figures which were established early last week. Nectarines have taken an upward range of 2 cents, selling as high as 10 cents a pound. In staples there were no changes. Local egg receipts were 268 cases. The surplus locals over the ordinary supply of the past few days were quickly taken up by the jobbers. Prices on eggs in the North and East have been easier in the past three days and a few declines have been registered.

Butter receipts were 20,634 pounds. Eastern butter is very firm and the New York price is up over 31 cents a pound. Local arrivals have been of such magnitude the past two weeks that there is an easy feeling in the market shown by the 1 cent decline of last Thursday.

Northern fresh cheese receipts were of good size and the call fair at the advanced figures. In the Eastern sections of the country cheese is not showing the same strength that prevails in the West, this being the time of production there. Arrivals of cheese yesterday were 4291 pounds.

The potato market continues to feel a trifle weak. Arrivals have been far above the average in the past few days and a number of brokers are finding themselves with considerable stock on hand. There are at least five cars standing on tracks awaiting buyers at the present time. Shipments out of the state continue very heavy. Arrivals yesterday were 2867 sacks.

Onion receipts were only 82 sacks of foreign stock and this helped out the market considerably, as far as keeping up prices went. There were no features in beans and no arrivals were reported. Sweet potato receipts from Fullerton and a few from northern Merced totaled 281 sacks, which in no way strengthened an already weak market.

Only 1 car of apples and a few boxes in separate shipment, totaling 660 boxes, arrived. Prices on apples were all steady. Other fruits were featureless. Peach and plum arrivals are falling off fast, but there is still a late crop of the former and it will be several weeks before these begin to appear. In the meantime, the market has firmed up a trifle on light arrivals and will hardly go any higher on account of a light demand. The first decline in linseed oil reported in several days came Tuesday when 5 cents was cut off quotations on both raw and boiled oil. Boiled is selling at a flat $1 rate and raw is going at 98 cents.

How Nandi Spearman Kill Lions

At last the tense ring was complete, and the spearman rose and closed in. The lion looked quickly from side to side, saw where the line was thinnest, and charged at his topmost speed. The crowded moment began. With shields held steady, and quivering spears poised, the men in front braced themselves for the shock; and from either hand the warriors sprang forward to take their foe in flank. Rounding ahead of his fellows, the leader reached throwing distance, the long spear flickered and plunged; as the lion felt the wound he half turned, and then flung himself on the man in front. The warrior threw his spear; it drove deep into the life, for entering at one shoulder it came out of the opposite flank, near the thigh, a yard of steel through the great body. Rearing, the lion struck the man, bearing down the shield, his back arched; and for a moment he slaked his fury with fang and talon. But on the instant I saw another spear driven clear through his body from side to side; and as the lion turned again the bright spear blades darting toward him were flashes of white flame. The end had come. He seized another man, who stabbed him and wrenched loose. As he fell he gripped a spear head in his jaws with such tremendous force that he bent it double. Then the warriors were round and over him, stabbing and shooting, wild with furious exultation.

From the moment when he charged until his death I doubt whether ten seconds had elapsed, perhaps less; but what a ten seconds! The first half dozen spears had done the work. Three of the spear blades had gone clear through the body, the points projecting several inches; and these, and one or two others, including the one he had seized in his jaws, had been twisted out of shape in the terrible death struggle. We at once attended to the two wounded men. Then the warriors, raising their shields above their heads, and chanting the deep-toned victory song, marched with a slow, dancing step around the dead body of the lion; and this savage dance of triumph ended a scene of as fierce interest and excitement as I ever hope to see. —From "African Game Trails," by Theodore Roosevelt, in the August Scribner.

ORANGE CITY NEWS NOTES

(Culled from the Orange News)

The Orange Union High School will open Sept. 5th. Principal Fishback has plans for "higher education" and has arranged to meet pupils at his office from 2 to 4 p. m. the following days: August 24, 26, 28, and 31, and Sept. 2 and 3. "I want to meet all the high school pupils before school begins that I may help them in the selection of their course of study."

The registration and transfer books for the general election in November are in the hands of J. P. Small, where all unregistered voters or those who have changed precincts since registration may qualify themselves by registering. The time limit for registration for the general election expires Sept. 28th, and the time for transfers Oct. 13th. Those desiring to register after 5 p. m., when Mr. Small's office is closed, will find the books at the store of A. C. Newell.

The City Trustees last evening took the first step toward the establishment of a permanent fire equipment fund by passing to second reading an ordinance establishing a fund for which a tax may be laid. The ordinance was given its first reading, and on motion of Trustee Gregg, was passed to second reading, for its final passage next Monday evening.

16-YEAR-OLD GIRL VICTIM OF FAST

Died Today—Others Recovering—Fasted 5 Weeks as Result of Fanaticism

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—Alice O'Neill Griffin, aged sixteen years, who was found in a house on Bender street, outside of the city limits, fasting with Rev. John Irving O'Neill, her uncle, Mrs. Nellie E. Boyle and James Butler, died today at the County Hospital as a result of the lack of nourishment. The coroner will investigate the death. Rev. O'Neill died Saturday. The other two are recovering. All fasted five weeks as a result of religious fanaticism.

29000 EAGLES IN BRILLIANT MARCH

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—Marching like trained soldiers, with the ranks flying the gayest of colors, 29,000 Eagles paraded at St. Louis today, making the most brilliant pageant seen here for many years.

The report of the committee investigating the graft charges against prominent Eagles by Theodore Bell of California, is expected this afternoon.

Louisville is making a hard fight for the next convention.

PATHOS IN COURT.

It Slipped Into the Ridiculous, but Didn't Lose the Suit.

Pathos in the courtroom has wrought for verdicts where irony and cynicism would have availed nothing, and the wise attorney makes effective use of it. But woe be to the pleader before the bar if he chances to slip inadvertently from the pathetic to the ludicrous!

Such an instance occurred in a case where the sister of a man who lately died was suing the administrators in one of our circuit courts for seventeen years' service, during which time she had faithfully attended and cared for her invalid brother and for which she had not been rewarded during his life nor provided for in his will.

When the case was called the courtroom was packed with those who sympathized with the sister. The plaintiff's attorney concluded after the hearing that the better way to obtain justice for his client was to make a pathetic appeal.

"Your honor," he began in his sedate and solemn way, "for seventeen long, toilsome years did my client devote herself to her unfortunate brother. With an affection such as only a sister can feel for an invalid brother did she minister to his every want. Patiently, faithfully, she toiled, never complaining, never unwilling, never murmuring. And never was she rewarded, except in that inward consciousness of having done a noble and self-sacrificing deed. Yes, your honor, for seventeen long, weary years she toiled and labored, and during that time she never received enough money to buy her a pair of pantaloons!"

The mistake was so natural, the absolute simplicity of this forgetfulness of his client's sex was so apparent, the flight from the pathetic to the broad ridiculous was so sudden and complete, that the effect upon his honor and the spectators is left to the reader's imagination. It may be added that she won the whole suit.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The First English Lottery.

The first recorded lottery in England was drawn in London in 1569, the proceeds being devoted to public purposes. Four hundred thousand lots were drawn for prizes of cash and silver plate, and for four months little else was thought or talked of. The delight of the winners and the despair of the unfortunate seemed equally exaggerated. An epidemic of lotteries followed, there being no laws upon the subject, and soon there were lottery tailors, lottery tea merchants, lottery barbers—who with each shave at threepence gave a ticket that might draw a ten pound prize—lottery shoeblacks, lottery eating houses where the sixpence a plate of meat and the chance of drawing 60 guineas were given, and so on down to a sausage stall in a narrow alley, where it was announced that he who bought a farthing's worth of sausage might obtain a capital sum of 5 shillings.—London Mail.

Genius the Fruit of Hard Work.

The published production of genius is like the personation of an actor on the stage. We see it and judge of it as it is presented, without thinking or caring by what means he has arrived at his superiority. Research, reflection, study, are not taken into account. It is the effect of his work, not the work, that we consider. Quite likely we explain his impressiveness, his influence upon us, his naturalness, as we choose to style it, by pronouncing him a genius, just as we explain discoveries in science, accomplishments in art, triumphs in literature. They are what they are because they have sprung from genius. The measureless work which has aided, shaped, ripened, expressed the genius is not remembered, nor is it generally suspected.—Junius Henri Browne.

Wet Indeed!

One rainy evening Nora, the greenhorn, was sent to the corner grocery to procure some article necessary to the preparation of dinner. When she returned her mistress expressed regret that she should have been obliged to send her out on such a bad night.

"You must be awfully wet, I'm afraid, Nora."

"Wet is it!" was the response. "Sure me stockings is as wet as if I was in me bare feet!"—New York Press.

A Fit Subject.

Mrs. De Jarr—Is there an idiot asylum near here?

Mr. De Jarr—I believe so.

"Do they take people on their own recommendation?"

"My stars! How should I know? Why?"

"Oh, nothing, only today I got hold of a package of my old love letters."—New York Weekly.

VETERANS HAD TWO GOOD PROGRAMS

Pasadena Entertained in Afternoon and Santa Ana In Evening

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 25.—

A long and acrimonious discussion followed the introduction of a resolution at last night's meeting of the Southern California Veterans' Association opposing the placing of volunteer officers in the late wars on the same footing as those of the regular army in being retired on half pay. Many speakers contended that to do this would so decrease the available pension funds as to hinder Congress from passing a service pension bill in favor of privates and non-commissioned officers granting them $1 a day, such a bill now pending. The discussion was prolonged and was becoming more and more bitter when a motion to lay the resolution on the table prevailed. It is expected that the matter will again be taken up, though an effort to prevent this is being made by those who contend that it is more proper for discussion in posts than in veterans' association encampments.

In the afternoon an entertainment was given by Pasadena post and corps, assisted by the Veterans' drum corps. The "nightmare band," grotesquely costumed, created much amusement. Col. E. C. Seymour of Highland, Jason J. Shepard of Pasadena, Quartermaster Paul of Santa Ana and others made short talks. Vocal solos were contributed by Miss Margaret Goodlin of Pasadena and Mrs. George Mason of Riverside. Irene Gillespie, 12 years old, daughter of a member of Bartlett Logan Post of Los Angeles, created enthusiasm by her graceful dancing.

A dress parade at 5 o'clock and a fine entertainment in the evening by Santa Ana post and corps completed the program. Officers will be elected tomorrow and camp will be broken on Saturday.

five members of the Oregon militia are battling with forest fires near Gresham, eleven miles from here, and two hundred militiamen are held in readiness to assist in case the flames get beyond control. Portland is in semi-darkness as a result of the smoke rolling up from the forest fires.

WENDLING BURNS—OTHER BIG FIRES ARE NEARBY

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 25.—Wendling, a small town near here was fire-swept last night with the result that only one store and three residences are yet standing. Several big fires are raging in this neighborhood and 150 fire fighters are working to save the Booth-Kelly lumber mill on the other side of Mill creek. The 600 women and children were taken safely out of the town to Marcola.

FIRE MAY LEAP RIVER AND DESTROY VILLAGE

MEDFORD, Ore., Aug. 25.—The little town of Prospect, fifty-two miles from here, is today threatened by fire. One hundred soldiers and numbers of civilians are trying to keep the flames from crossing the Middle Fork of the Rogue river. If the fire jumps the stream, the town is doomed.

The situation at Ashland is slightly improved. Unless the wind arises it is believed the town will be saved.

Chico Fires Devour Timber

CHICO, Aug. 25.—Though the fires which yesterday menaced Magalla's safety are under control today, the seat of activity is changed to Chico Canyon, where the flames are devouring scrub timber at a great rate. The Higgins ranch is consumed and the blaze is running swiftly from hill to hill toward Cohasset bridge, where the saw mills are situated. All the mills in the surrounding country are closed, and the employees are fighting the fires. The telephone lines into the Butte Meadows country to the east of Stirling City are burned out. The Diamond Match Co. property is safe, according to late reports.

33 CARLOADS OF HOTEL EQUIPMENT

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 25.—Thirty-three carloads of furniture are required to furnish the new Grant hotel. Two carloads arrived yesterday and two others are on the way. O. L. Lilly, formerly of Lakeside Inn, is superintending the work of unpacking and placing the furnishings. The first two cars to arrive consist of chiffoniers and trunk stands of mahogany.

A. T. ARMSTRONG'S BARN BURNED

Delightful Entertainment—Social and Personal Notes

OLD NEWPORT, Aug. 25.—This neighborhood was delightfully and unusually entertained last Wednesday evening by Mr. Clyde Sheldon Shepard of the Wallis School of Dramatic Art, Los Angeles, in an eight character comedy entitled "Between Love and Money," which was interspersed with delightful readings. For humor and character portrayals it was pronounced by all who heard it as being one of the best monologues ever enjoyed. Miss Beatrice Neely and Mr. Rose with a duet; and Miss Ruth Armstrong with a solo, assisted in the program. Everyone is looking forward to Mr. Shepard's return for a second entertainment in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons and son, of Santa Ana, and their daughter, Mrs. Huff, and children, from Vernon, Texas, spent several days with Mr. Walton's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Neely and family are visiting in their old home, Lancaster, for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wakeham spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Ernest Wakeham.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller and children of Los Angeles, visited at the Armstrong home last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Anson of Boston, spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ould. W. de R. Rose was a business visitor in Los Angeles Thursday.

A. G. Adams, Will Armstrong, Clarence Bradbury, Frank Bradbury, Lloyd Bradbury, Raleigh Vincent, Neal and Clare McClintock, made up a party that spent all day fishing Saturday. They went out in a gasoline launch and a good catch is reported.

Next Friday evening the Mission Study Class will meet at the home of Mrs. A. T. Cole. They will take up the study of South America. This is the first meeting after a vacation for the summer and all are invited to attend.

Mrs. H. A. Tedford spent Saturday in Santa Ana with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter Tedford.

Miss Ellen Harlin, who has been visiting at the home of her uncle, W. J. Harlin, has gone to Long Beach for a visit.

A. T. Armstrong lost a fine barn and all its contents, by fire, Tuesday evening. It is not known how the blaze started, but it is supposed to have started from a feed cutter that was being used to cut alfalfa.

The blaze was under such headway when discovered it was impossible to save the building, or any of its contents. The men of the neighborhood worked heroically and succeeded in saving the feed cutter and gasoline engine, which were standing just outside of the building.

SHANNON SAYS HE HOLDS LEAD

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 25.—(Special to the Register)—State Printer W. W. Shannon is still confident that he has the Republican nomination to succeed himself. In a telephone message received at his office here today he expressed satisfaction at the present standing of the race between himself and Friend W. Richardson, in which he asserts that he is 400 votes to the good. Shannon has heard from every county in the state. Richardson also expresses confidence of securing the nomination, saying that when the official returns are in he will be in the lead.

Frank C. Pordan counts himself as the victor over Florence J. O'Brien of Chico by 300 votes. Jordan has heard from all the counties and asserts that the official count will give him a greater plurality.

ESCONDIDO TAX RATE

ESCONDIDO, Aug. 25.—The city trustees have fixed the annual tax rate at $1.15, which is an advance of 15 cents over the rate of last year. The rate on the new valuation will raise about $7000 for general purposes, and about $1000 for the support of the Carnegie library, which is nearing completion.

9 DAYS SALE

Final Clearance of Summer Suits

33¹/₃ % Off

Beginning Friday Aug., 26th---Ending Sat. Sept. 3rd

During the next 9 days we are going to close out the balance of suits which we took over from Lutz & Co., regardless of cost. If you want the greatest real value in clothing for your money you ever had in your life, then attend this sale. Every suit is new, this season's goods—not an extreme light weight in the whole bunch. Think! Stop and consider what values you can get. A suit below the wholesale cost.

$10.00 buys any	$15 suit, $5.00 saved
12.00 buys any	18 suit, 6.00 saved
13.33 buys any	20 suit, 6.67 saved
16.67 buys any	25 suit, 8.33 saved
20.00 buys any	30 suit, 10.00 saved

Lose! Certainly we lose. But you can gain by our loss if you will and you will if you investigate this sale. We do this because we have too many suits on hand and we must turn them into money in order to meet fall bills. You will not be disappointed when you come, but will find the values greater than you expected. Remember you have only 9 days in which to decide.
